Comments:

Having read the plan I think it is a well researched document which is a good reflection of the village at this time.

Great care was taken to allow all villagers to comment on the process as it progressed. The consultations with the village on the siting of the new housing needed in the Local Plan were all done openly and fairly and had high response rates. Their results are an accurate reflection of what the majority of the village wants.

I congratulate the people who worked very hard to bring this document to fruition, sometimes in the face of intense pressure from landowners and developers.
